BM MONTHLY REPORT

What better way to begin a new year than with Holy Communion and foot washing? We celebrated the sacrifice of Christ and followed His example as we broke bread, drank the cup, and washed the brethren's feet. Jesus said, "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them" (John 13:17, KJV).

Amen!

Having started the year in remembrance of Him, it's no surprise blessings soon followed. The James Chapel Community Holiness Church "called in" its first mid-week service of 2010, to Join the Upper Trough Camp Christian Holiness Church in revival meeting. Though the weather was less than desirable, the services left nothing to be desired, with Spirit-filled meetings and two souls saved on the altar! One of which was Kaitlyn Roe, one of our young people at James Chapel. Praise the Lord!

Another highlight of January was "Heart Talks On Holiness" taught by Bro. Carl Rose, at James Chapel, January 13-17. This soul stirring and Scripturally sound teaching series was well balanced and beneficial to all, one we highly recommend! Thank God for the message of salvation, full and free!

As the month drew to a close, Bro. Jacob taught a wonderful message on "Resisting Temptation" at the January Youth Service at James Chapel. There was a wonderful Spirit to MC the evening and all the young people did a marvelous job!

Bro. Adam was also privileged to hold a Prison Service at the Little Sandy Correctional Center on January 28th. The altar was lined and at least half a dozen found God faithful with restoring grace!

What a way to begin a new year! May it be the beginning of many great things to come, in Jesus' name, Amen! -Bro. Adam Buckler

Words of Wisdom

"Happy New Year"

"Happy New Year! I will say it a score of times... Friends will wish me the same. Will our greetings be only friendly formalities or will they be prophecies of good things to come in the months ahead? If I know what I am saying when I wish my friend "Happy New Year!" I am wishing that this shall be the year in which he shall walk with God and do something for folk who are near him. If I am to have the happy new year that my friends have wished for me I must open the floodgates through which happiness flows in. I must keep my spirit open to the presence of God and keep my heart open to the needs of men." (Harper, 1964).

STACEY'S STUFF

Mission: Impossible. Doesn't it feel that way sometimes -trying to juggle our responsibilities as wives, mothers, and homemakers? Thank God for His Word! Jesus declares in Matthew 19:26, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." With God at the center of our lives, we can do anything, even accomplish these great tasks. I would like to focus on one of those, our "Mission of Motherhood".

Mission has been defined as "a special work", "our purpose in life", and "our calling". Wow! Motherhood is definitely that. God created and commissioned us to be mothers. He equipped us both physically and emotionally. He gave us the gift to carry life within us, and hinted to this ability when He inspired Adam to name the first woman Eve, "the mother of all living" (Genesis 3:20). (see Stacey's on p. 2)

THE KIDS' CORNER

When I think of February, Valentines Day comes to mind. Valentines Day is a day centered around love. Did you know that God is love? The Bible says, "Beloved let us love one another: for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love" (1 John 4:7,8).

God loves us more than you can imagine. He loved us so much that He sent His Son to die for us, that we could live forever! Since Jesus died for our sins we can be saved and go to Heaven. What would have happened if God had not sent Jesus as an act of supreme love? Let us ever be thankful that God loves us and "let us love one another" for "everyone that loveth is born of God"
