

Report

service at the Little Sandy Correctional Center on Sept. 16. We had a dynamic service with a flood of folks around the altars. There were 10 saved or restored to the Lord during this meeting!

The following evening, Sept. 17, was KY East Youth Rally for the Christian Holiness. This event was hosted by the Ross Chapel Christian Holiness Church (Rev. Terry Dean-Pastor). We had a wonderful service with singing from many of the youth groups and an unusual, but applicable, message from CYA President Rev. Mathew Blankenship.

Our first revival for Sept. was held at Peebles, (OH) CCCU. We shared 5 services with together, Sept. 19-22, and saw six souls saved! We want to thank Pastor David Hopkins and the Peebles congregation for this opportunity. We are already looking forward to next year! From Peebles we went about an hour north to the city of Greenfield, OH. Here we held two nights with a group of Bible Missionaries at the Greenfield CCCU church. Again God was faithful, meeting with us both nights, and gloriously saving a young lady! We want to thank those that coordinated the meetings, as well as, Pastor Rodger Newkirk for the use of his church.

We closed out Sept. back in Kentucky at the Poplar Flat Church, between Vanceburg and Tollesboro. We had a fantastic meeting, working alongside the Daltons, who served as song evangelists for the week. We want to thank Pastor Carl McCann and the Poplar Flat church for allowing us to serve them once more. We look forward to a Christmas service scheduled there on Dec. 21.

for the Scriptures warn that "some have entertained angels unaware" (Hebrews 13:2)! Thank you for your time.

Stacey's

We can be joyful while shedding tears. God weeps and laughs. Don't pollute the atmosphere with moping, bad moods, defeat and depression - that is the enemy's territory. God's territory is tears with a mission to accomplish the impossible.

Step 2: Feel God's Heartbeat! It's an absolute crime to waste tears on nothing! It's wasting ammunition! Our tears need to hit the mark - a bulls-eye every time! Tears become the overflow valve of what we feel. It is imperative for us to feel the heartbeat of God or our tears will be usurped by self-pity, the devil's ultimate goal for our gift.

Step 3: Redeem Your Tears! Jeremiah 9:20 tells us "teach your daughters to wail, teach them to mourn!" God knows a woman will cry. He created her to do so more than any other creature. He knows we must be taught what to cry for, and how to cry, otherwise we will cry over little things that have no value, or worse, are destructive. Often we use our tears on ourselves so that we have nothing left to pour out in intercession for others.

Step 4: Turn Your Weapon Around! We cannot afford to waste one teardrop crying with self-pity! It's like having a powerful weapon with the barrel pointed our way. It ends up exploding in our own face. It can turn a beautiful woman's face to ugliness in seconds! It's alluring to cry for yourself, but before you know it, snap, the enemy has your mind.

Step 5: Let God Choose Your Battles! You may be tempted to use tears every time your heart before you bart breaks or someone tells you their problem. A true warrior must confront the battles that are specifically given to them. Rushing to every battle shows bad strategy and weakens the warrior. Do not take everyone's battles-let God choose them!
